Congressional Sales Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)48268453 Subject: Social security beneficiaries -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 tion is to assess the value of using contractors with expertise in accounting practices to assist the SSA teams in conducting the site reviews. To date, the contractor has assisted our field review teams in 35 site reviews in our Chicago and Philadelphia Regional Office areas, and is on schedule under the terms of the contract. While no misuse of benefits was found in these reviews, they revealed record keeping prob-lems and that some of the organizational payees have a weak financial position. We will continue to monitor these payees. ECRecruitment AND EDUCATION AMPAIGN R E C We have new projects either well underway or completed to help our field offices recruit and educate new and existing organizational payees. As previously noted, we revised our Guide for Organizational Representative Payees and we expect dis-tribution by June. This booklet provides guidelines and suggestions to assist organi-zations in understanding the principles of the representative payment program and their responsibilities. We have produced a training video which can be used by the field offices when training organizational payees. Both the video and the guide will become part of a training kit which includes a lesson plan for training organizational payees, a power point presentation, and CDs. We plan to release this kit to our regions in June. These educational products will assist our field offices when providing train-ing for organizational payees and also serve as tools for payees to refer to when questions arise or when the...
