Remember me this Morning. June 27. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ comfort your heart and mind, and enrich you exceedingly. Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work. LOOK back upon all the way in which God has made me walk, and truly I must praise Him for finding such a way for me. I did not see the way. I did not choose it. At first I thought it could not be Gods way, the hills were so high, the rocks were so large, the path was so rough, and there was so much to make me afraid. Now I see much that God meant, and I am glad--glad with great joy. The work that lies before me this day is hard, and how to do it I know not. This is as the day...
