HISTORY OF EDUCATION IN WEST VIRGINIA (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from History of Education in West Virginia In that splendid address delivered at Buffalo only the day before his assassination, President McKinley said that expositions are the timekeepers of progress. This is true in many ways with reference to the development and advancement of West Virginia. In 1876 there was distributed at the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia a book entitled The Resources of West Virginia, which first called the attention of the world to our vast material wealth, and to the other great possibilities within our borders. Then in 1893 a similar work called The Mountain State was prepared for the World s Fair at Chicago. At that time also the Columbian History of Education in West Virginia was issued, being the first printed record relating to our educational progress. This book was prepared by State Superintendent B. S. Morgan and Mr. J. F. Cork, and was an excellent presentation of what had been accomplished up to that time. It is proper to say here that in 1889 Prof. A. R. Whitehill, of the West Virginia University, prepared an educational history of the State for the Bureau of Education at Washington, but it was not published until 1902, at which time he added an appendix bringing it up to date and making it a valuable contribution to the literature of this class. So the great expositions held in former years have been to us timekeepers of our educational as well as our material progress, and this present sketch is the outgrowth of a desire to indicate to the world at St. Louis that we are aiming to have our educational work keep at least within hailing distance...
