New York, Bern, Berlin, Frankfurt/M., Paris, Wien, 1998. 202 p., 1998. Book Condition: New. La Declaración Internacional de la Década de la Mujer (1975-1985) representa un momento clave en el entendimiento de lo que constituye la experiencia femenina postcolonial. Dentro de este contexto surgen un grupo de textos en los que se propone reconstruir la identidad de la mujer a partir de la reescritura de su propia historia personal. A partir del análisis de Querido Diego, te abraza Quiela, Água Viva, Mulher no Espelho y En breve cárcel, el objetivo de este estudio es mostrar la importancia del acto auto-biográfico en la presentación de una experiencia femenina plural. La multiplicidad de identidades que surgen en el acto de la escritura es fruto de la interrelación que existe entre historia, raza, clase y género. En última instancia, este estudio se propone demostrar la importancia de estos textos como fase de transición literaria hacia modelos femeninos esperanzadores.
