The Bunny Op must succeed before their world goes the way of the Dodo. Sean Nelson lives in Castle Rock, Colorado with his wife and kids. The idea of introducing conservative principles to children via Bungles was born one evening in the fall of 2000 as he placed a small stuffed bunny next to his daughter as she fell asleep. In 1993 while serving in the United States Air Force, Rush Limbaugh challenged Sean Nelson s political beliefs and he transitioned quickly from a liberal to a conservative. He has been an artist for over twenty years. From a humble beginning of drawing art for his high school newspaper and yearbook to publishing two children s books, his artwork has taken many forms including a large mural he painted in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia depicting an F-16 dedicated to the 34th FS Rams of Hill AFB, Utah.
