You bring a great deal of experience to this position. You have served on a number of national boards related to the justice sys-tem, including the board of trustees at the Institute of Justice, which you chair; the board of directors of the Police Foundation, advisory board of George Mason University, Administration of Jus-tice Programs. You have published numerous articles. So you bring a wealth of experience to this position. And I will put into the Committee record letters of support for Ms. Robinson, including the U. S. Conference of Mayors, National League of Cities, National Association of Counties, and the Inter-national Association of Chiefs of Police. Our third nominee today is Ketanji Brown Jackson. Ms. Jackson has been nominated to be a member of the U. S. Sentencing Com-mission. The commission is an independent agency in the Judicial Branch of government. Its purpose is to establish sentencing poli-cies and practices for the Federal court, including criminal sen-tencing guidelines, to advise and assist Congress and the executive branch in developing crime policy and to analyze and research criminal justice information, a very important position. Ms. Jackson is of counsel at Morrison and Foerster in Washington, D. C. , where she has worked since 2007. From 2005 to 2007, she was an assistant Federal public defender in the District of Colum-bia. I could go through the rest of her resume, but let me point out, one of the most important parts of...
