

Women in Power at the Un: Stories to Inspire (Paperback)

By Avril David, Shana Sung

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Through close examination of the lives and lessons-learned of women in positions of leadership and power at the United Nations, this book was developed with the purpose of inspiring and encouraging people across cultures, generations, and geographies in pursuit of their professional and life goals. The women profiled in this book represent the diversity of the United Nations organization as well as the diversity of societal expectations and opportunities for women across the globe: Radhika Coomaraswamy, Special Representative and Under-Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict Angela Kane, Under-Secretary-General for Management Susana Malcorra, Under-Secretary-General for Field Support Rachel Mayanja, Special Adviser on Gender Issues and Advancement of Women Patricia O'Brien, Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, UN Legal Counsel. It is the authors hope that when people read this book, no matter how old they are or where they are from, they will see these stories as a source of inspiration for their own lives. They also hope that through these stories, readers will gain a deeper understanding of the United Nations work and, along with it, some of the...
