

Scavengers at His Feet (Paperback)

By Micah Johnson

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 147 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Somewhere between getting sentenced to death by the king of England, avoiding execution only to be kidnapped by Viking slave merchants, and being robbed of his beloved foster family by a ruthless, power-hungry monarch, Gabriel has become obsessed with revenge. It helps a bit that, during his years of enslavement in Iceland, he was forced to take part in a perverse mimicry of gladiatorial Roman games while Vikings made wagers against his survival. He has become a warrior of unparalleled skill and lethal expertise .and countless months of imprisonment in a filthy underground dungeon have taught him to survive on fury alone. So when the Empress Matilda offers him direct access to the one man responsible for destroying Gabriel's life, he jumps at the opportunity. All he must do in return is retrieve the missing wife of Thomas de Marle, a loathsome ally of Matilda's. Of course, Gabriel doesn't suspect that the impudent, mud-spattered boy he finds hiding out in the forest is none other than the errant Lady Brylieva de Marle herself; nor could he...
