The personal satisfaction connected with the performance of which duty, is only alloyed with a sense of personal unfitness for the task, and the regret that the choice had not fallen upon one better fitted for it. The peculiar duties connected with my profession, and the studies to which the ministers of Christ are mostly confined, not being such as to make them familiar with the works and the walks of the Mechanic or Inventor. Yet personally I must confess to a peculiar fondness for mechanical pursuits. The sharp edge of the well ground chisel has always shone before my eyes with a lustre more fascinating than that of the useless but ornamental diamond, whilst a well proportioned or skilfully adjusted Lathe or Engine has to me an attractiveness, as great as the well formed racer in the eyes of the Breeder and Trainer. In fact I do not think that the Sportsman ever seized his gun with greater avidity, than I do the hammer and saw; when after a day's toil and labor in the arduous and exhausting duties of my ministry I seek recreation. I have great respect for a tenpenny nail: and knock him on the head with a feeling of personal complacency as great as that with which the Sportsman bags his bird. Even...
