Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you're returning to the workplace after an extended period of employment, you need to understand that job hunting has changed. Today's job market is a competitive, rapidly evolving arena, with little tolerance for outdated resumes and interview tactics. Tired of Eating Peanut and Jelly Sandwiches? provides the skills needed to secure employment in today's job market-before you're reduced to eating PBJ for dinner. Author, engineer, and business development professional James F. Watson, PhD, PE, FASM, has thirty years of experience interviewing, hiring, and promoting job applicants. Under Watson's expert tutelage, you'll discover the most effective job-hunting strategies, including how to answer that most intimidating interview question, Why were you laid off? Watson helps job seekers update and polish their resumes to provide the information today's employers demand and offers a detailed discussion on the importance and structure of cover letters. He outlines the importance of networking during a job search and reminds readers of seemingly small but all-important actions to take before, during, and after an interview. A complete and helpful guide to the harsh realities of modern job hunting, Tired of Eating Peanut and Jelly Sandwiches? proves that persistence and attention to detail quickly lead to gainful employment.
