Summary: "This is an intricately orchestrated cross-generational memoir, and one that is particularly successful in linking the world of China in the first half of the twentieth century to the opportunities and ambiguities of those Chinese who grew up as Americans. It is a subtle book that resonates in the mind as well as being a true family history that spans moods and generations." Jonathan Spence, author of The Search for Modern China and Sterling Professor of History, Yale University "Absolutely mesmerizing. It captures not only the soul of a family, but the essence of twentieth-century China." Iris Chang, author of The Rape of Nanking "A beautiful piece of memory and history. The Girl from Purple Mountain presents the intimacies and secrets of the Chai family set against the broad canvas that is China in the twentieth century. This is an amazing story of survival and endurance, fierce love and bitter resentments, and the failures and triumphs of the human heart." Lisa See, author of On Gold Mountain " The Girl from Purple Mountain is a wonderful resource for teachers of modern China, appropriate for...
