In the execution of the first part of these instructions, great delicacy and management, with respect to the Nabob, was recommended to the new President and Council, the Company esteeming him the most powerful, as well as the most able of the Indian Princes upon that coast. The Committee of Circuit was not to begin their operations till the Rajah of Tanjore was re-established. The Nabob of Arcot made representations upon representations against the injustice and breach of faith, as he called it, of dispossessing him of Tanjore. -- - He would upon no account give his consent to the Company s re-establishing the Rajah, but did not oppose our placing a European garrison in his capital, nor attempt to resist that by force, which he endeavoured by every other means in his power to obstruct. --- It was not indeed to be expected, he would give any assistance to the diminution of his own power. The Nabob s artful conduct rendered it necessary, that some of the Company s ablest servants should be present at Tanjore, at the moment of the Rajah s being put in possession of the government...
